

late sports

The reason behind the Golden Seals - Black Hawks trade:

Redmond had contract, Finley wouldn't pay

By BEN FISHER
The Star's Sports Editor
The Montreal Canadiens and the Chicago Black Hawks have agreed to a trade which would give up a promising rookie center in exchange for a veteran defenseman and a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup.

Redmond was a first-round pick of the Canadiens in the 1971 draft. He was selected by Montreal because of his size and speed. He has been playing in the minor leagues since then.

Finley was a first-round pick of the Blackhawks in the 1971 draft. He was selected by Chicago because of his size and speed. He has been playing in the minor leagues since then.

The trade would give the Canadiens a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup. The Blackhawks would receive a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup.

The trade would give the Canadiens a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup. The Blackhawks would receive a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup.

The trade would give the Canadiens a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup. The Blackhawks would receive a defenseman who is expected to be a regular in the lineup.

Boxer Cantin resting

QUEREC—Montreal boxer Ramond Cantin was resting in his hotel room last night after a blood-letting fight with a local opponent.

Quebec juniors explode

QUEREC—Quebec juniors exploded in a 10-1 victory over Montreal in the opening round of the Quebec Junior Hockey League.

Bobrov lashes Soviet players

Only seven of his players... Coach looks back on Team Canada series

Bobrov's criticism of his players... He said they were not doing well in the series.

Bobrov's criticism of his players... He said they were not doing well in the series.

Red Fisher's column

As a columnist, I have seen enough... I have seen enough of the current state of affairs.

As a columnist, I have seen enough... I have seen enough of the current state of affairs.

As a columnist, I have seen enough... I have seen enough of the current state of affairs.

Blazers attract 790 fans

The Vancouver Blazers attracted 790 fans to their home game last night.

The Vancouver Blazers attracted 790 fans to their home game last night.

The Vancouver Blazers attracted 790 fans to their home game last night.

NHL

Table with NHL scores for various teams including Montreal, Boston, and Chicago.

Optimistic Smith believes Seals can be a contender

By BOB DENNIS
Wednesday, Feb. 22 was the day Boston Bruins goalie Ken Dryden was named the Vezina Trophy winner.

Smith's optimism for the Seals... He believes they can be a contender.

Smith's optimism for the Seals... He believes they can be a contender.

Smith's optimism for the Seals... He believes they can be a contender.